A Midsummer Night's Dream

Be part of the magic

Under starry, summer skies, the veil between the everyday and the extraordinary grows joyfully thin. Step into the story as a group of giddy young lovers collide with fairies in a shared night of surprise, wonder and transformation. Directed by Emily Lim (The Enormous Crocodile, Regent's Park Open Air Theatre, The Odyssey, National Theatre/Public Acts).

Mother Courage and Her Children

Mother. Fighter. Survivor.

War rages. Resources are scarce. Hope is a luxury. Mother Courage drags her cart through a wasteland stripped bare by greed and conflict—a profiteer, a survivor and a mother. The Globe stages revolutionary playwright Brecht for the first time. Globe Artistic Director Michelle Terry (Three Sisters, Globe) leads in Anna Jordan's (Succession, HBO) fierce new translation, directed by Elle While (A Midsummer Night's Dream, Globe).

Much Ado About Nothing

Party's over.
Let the battle begin.

Sharp tongues, short tempers and savage gossip collide in sun-soaked Messina as the battle for love begins. But beneath the surface of a society driven by style and status, the party's over and secrets are starting to slip. Expect magnetic attraction, bad behaviour and second chances in this unfiltered, razor-sharp rom-com directed by Chelsea Walker (All's Well That Ends Well, Globe).

Love's Labour's Lost

When vows break, hearts rise

A blazing, flamenco-inspired production of Shakespeare's rarely staged comedy. Four women arrive in Navarre on a diplomatic mission, testing the devotion of the King and his lords whose vows are undone by love, desire and wit. Rhythm, fiery tension and passion bring this raw, human story of love and connection to life. Directed by Indiana Lown-Collins (A Midsummer Night's Dream, Globe, The Solid Life of Sugar Water, Orange Tree Theatre).

Writer William Shakespeare

As You Like It

Let love run free

Run wild and free in the Forest of Arden, where love is limitless. Bursting with joy, music and magic, the Globe stage becomes a festival of dreamers under the stars in this new production co-directed by Globe Associate Artistic Director Sean Holmes (Romeo and Juliet, Pinocchio, Globe) and Charlie Josephine (Pinocchio, Globe, Cowbois, RSC/Royal Court).

A World Elsewhere

Join the adventure

Follow Cass on a whirlwind adventure through his own imagination in this funny, colourful celebration of storytelling, friendship and courage. A joy-filled new family show exploring how the stories we share can bring us all closer together. From the team behind Olivier Award-nominated Rough Magic and Midsummer Mechanicals: Globe Director of Education Lucy Cuthbertson and Splendid Productions' Kerry Frampton and Ben Hales.

Shakespeare and Climate

A night of sustainable storytelling

During London Climate Action Week, the Globe Theatre returns to its Shakespearean roots and goes off-grid for a low-energy performance of A Midsummer Night's Dream. This live experiment will explore sustainable storytelling and invite artists and audiences to celebrate the creativity and joy found in reimagining theatre with nature at its centre.
